

HE SHOT HIS SWEETHEART.

THE WOULD-BE MURDERER THEN KILLED HIMSELF.

MIS VICTIM, WHO RECEIVED A SECOND BULLET WHILE HIDING UNDER A TABLE, MAY DIE.

A tragedy in which despair played the principal part took place at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of W. Meeker Littell, at No. 114 South Thirtieth-st., Newark. At that hour a shot rang out in the kitchen and attracted the attention of Mr. Littell, a retired drugist, who, with his wife, was in a room on the second floor of the building. Mr. Littell ran down the stairs to the dining-room just in time to overtake his servant, Martha Magowsky, a young and pretty German girl, as she was about to dash out of the front door and on to the porch shouting for the police. A trail of blood followed her from the kitchen into the hall, and she was evidently being inflicted by pistol shots.

Mr. Littell opened the door and a report followed. He saw his wife lying on the floor, and he rushed to her side. A 32-calibre bullet had entered the German's brain. Mr. Littell at once informed the Second Precinct police and an ambulance was immediately dispatched to the scene of the tragedy.

Martha Magowsky, who is twenty-three years old, lay senseless upon the porch, and upon the arrival of the ambulance was conveyed to the hospital, where it was found that a bullet had been fired into the left side of the face and another into the palm of the left hand, the latter passing directly through and embedding itself in the opposite wall of the dining-room adjoining. At the hospital it was said that the probability of the young woman's surviving the night was extremely doubtful. County Physician Wrightson viewed the body of Hunger as it lay on the floor of the dining-room and took a number of letters from his pocket, among which the body was sent to Mullins morgue in Washington-st.

Two months ago Martha Magowsky emigrated from Saxony to this country and went to live with her parents, who had preceded her by several years, at No. 79 Fairview-ave. Subsequently she secured employment as a servant in the house of Mr. Littell. On Easter Sunday the family, who were interested in the young woman because of her quick demeanor and lady-like appearance, took her with them to the Gilsey House, in this city. Hunger, wearing a cape coat, gold eyeglasses, broadcloth suit, and possessing the air and manner of a gentleman, appeared at the hotel in quest of the Magowsky girl, who introduced him to her employers as her affianced lover, who had just arrived from Germany. Mrs. Littell readily excused the young woman for the afternoon, and the couple went for a trip to Central Park, where they spent the afternoon. On their return the young woman smilingly exhibited a diamond ring on her finger, set with stones representing gem-pens eyes, and at the same time also showed her mistress a gold watch and chain which her lover had given her during their ramble through the park. The couple seemed extremely happy, and Mrs. Littell allowed them to accompany the party back to their home in Rosville.

Two weeks ago, according to the story of the young woman's mother, who had visited Mrs. Littell, Hunger went to the house of Miss Magowsky's parents in Fairview-ave, under the influence of liquor. He went afterward in a similar condition, and by the advice of her parents the young woman told him that she loved him. He was overjoyed, and he gave her a diamond ring. She returned with her gifts, including the engagement ring. The mother requested Mrs. Littell to prevent a meeting between the two at her house if it were possible to do so. Mrs. Littell agreed to this proposition.

At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon Hunger, who was apparently sober, and who was a man forty years old, thoroughly conversant with five languages, and the son of a prosperous hotel-keeper in Hamburg, entered the kitchen and asked permission to bid Martha Magowsky good-by, on the plea that he was about to return to Germany. Mrs. Littell asked the young woman whether she would like to see her lover, and when the girl nodded assent, left the two together. For an hour Hunger and the girl conversed quietly, but it was evident that Hunger was making a desperate effort to persuade her to leave with him. He was, however, refused, and refused to accept his apologies. In a moment of intense passion, Hunger grasped her by the hair as she stood at the sink, drew his revolver and holding it against her left temple fired a bullet into her forehead. The blood streaming from the wound, the girl fled into the dining-room and sought refuge beneath the dining-room table. Her left hand was thrust from under the table, and she called out for help. Mr. Littell, who was in the hall just as Mr. Littell appeared at the head of the stairs.

When removed to the city hospital Martha Magowsky, who had received considerable wounds, after which she again relapsed into unconsciousness. Her condition at a late hour last night was considered too critical to allow her to be removed to her home. She was, however, removed to her home in Fairview-ave, and she was placed in the care of the Chief of Police of Newark. The last letter found in the pocket of the suicide was addressed to George Gross, at No. 150 Columbus-ave, to a hotelkeeper at No. 78 Greenwich-st., New York City. It was dated in Fairview-ave, and was in English, and said he proposed either to force Martha to marry him or else to take her life. He said that he was a man of honor, and that he would not be deceived. He also mentioned that he had a large sum of money, and that he was a man of honor. The body will be kept at the Morgue until word can be received from Hunger's parents in Germany as to his disposition.

AN INDICTMENT AGAINST GIBSON.

Chicago, April 22 (Special).—About half of the indictments recently returned by the Federal Grand Jury were made public this afternoon. The indictment against George J. Gibson, ex-secretary of the Whiskey Trust, is based on a difference of opinion as to the validity of the license granted to him by the Government. The first count sets forth that on January 22, 1891, Thomas S. Dewar was an Internal Revenue officer, and as such Gibson sought to induce him to enter the eastern room of Shufeldt's distillery to blow it up. In the other count a violation of the law is alleged against the United States, inasmuch as an attempt was made to blow up the distillery, which would have deprived the Government of taxes. Gibson was to give Dewar three certificates of 100 shares of stock in the Distillery and Cattle Feeding Company, worth $12,000, and $5,000 in cash.

SETTLEMENT OF A GAMING SUIT.

Chicago, April 22.—The Heronville-Padrigue-Lester litigation, involving a doubtful right of recovery for alleged gambling transactions, has been settled. The suit was begun in 1884 and has been in the courts ever since. Samuel Berkowitz claimed that one of the Padrigues lost $150,000 in a Board of Trade operation through John T. Lester. As an informer he sued under the gambling statute for $600,000 damages, the State to receive half the judgment if any. The suit was settled yesterday by the payment, it is understood, of $60,000.

SWINDLED THE PRESIDENT OF A BANK.

Nephi, Utah, April 22.—George Whitmore, president of the Nephi National Bank, was "buncoed" out of $40,000 yesterday by gold-brick swindlers, who have disappeared.

ONE PATIENT MURDERS ANOTHER.

Auburn, N. Y., April 22.—Between the ward visits of the night watch at the Willard State Hospital on Friday night, Dewitt Savocool, an epileptic patient, killed another patient, named John Morrow. The homicide was apparently committed by striking the victim with the room crochery, which was dashed into fragments. Dr. Bishop, however, upon examination discovered that the victim died of suffocation, as Savocool, after felling Morrow across his bed, had been over him. Through the officers of the hospital he had been huddled up for several days, and leaked out only yesterday.

A HAUGHTY AFRICAN KING.

ANSWERING ENGLAND'S WARNING BY MUTILATING HER ENVOY.

THREE BRITISH GUNBOATS START UP THE GAM-BIA RIVER TO Avenge THE OUTRAGE.

—A "LITTLE WAR" PROBABLE.

London, April 22.—Advices received here from Bathurst, the capital of Gambia, the British West African colony, seem to show that Great Britain has another "little war" upon her hands. The native King of Gambia, it appears, has for some time been acting in a disturbed and discontented mind, and has consequently committed, or allowed to be committed, a number of depredations and abuses from which the British colonists were the sufferers. The British Administrator, or Governor, of Gambia, Gilbert Thomas Carter, C.M.G., having put up with the King's conduct as long as possible, sent an envoy, in the person of a prominent English official, up the Gambia River to the town which the native King makes his headquarters. This envoy was charged with the mission of informing the King that he must behave himself and see that his subjects behaved themselves in future, or else he might expect a visit of a disciplinary nature from the marine forces of the Queen of England.

The envoy faithfully carried out his orders, and communicated the Administrator's views to the King. The latter ordered the English envoy to be seized and bound, which was promptly done. Then the King directed that the unfortunate envoy should be sent back to Bathurst in a condition which would be a warning to all other English envoys who might venture up the Gambia River. Thereupon, by the King's command, portions of the envoy's checks and portions of his thighs were cut out by the King's bodyguard, and later on the official and the pieces of flesh cut from his body were sent to the Administrator at Bathurst. With the envoy and the pieces of flesh the King sent Mr. Carter the following terse message: "This is the King's answer."

The British Administrator has taken prompt steps to send the King a fitting reply to his treatment of the English envoy. Three British gunboats have already ascended the Gambia River to avenge the outrage.

THE BOERS HEED THE INTIMATION.

GREAT BRITAIN'S DISPLEASURE AT A PROPOSED EXPEDITION FROM THE TRANSVAAL TO FOUND A NEW REPUBLIC.

Cape Town, April 22.—A telegram received here from Pretoria, capital of the Transvaal, or South African Republic, on April 10, announced that a Boer "trek," or expedition, with the consent of the President of the Transvaal, was to be organized with the object of establishing a republic in either Mashonaland or Manicaland, territories in relation to which the British and Portuguese authorities are now engaged in several disputes. This project, the telegram added, if carried out, would affect Manica territory claimed by England, and might result in further trouble between England and Portugal. Lord Salisbury, the British Foreign Secretary, has expressed his displeasure at the proposed expedition to the President of the Boers was that the projected Boer "trek" would be treated as an act of hostility to the Queen of England.

To this distinct declaration President Kruger has just replied. He says that he has discouraged the projected expedition, and that, in addition, he has sent messages to the Boers to the effect of having been a member of the movement, with the determination to impress still more clearly upon them the necessity of not taking any action which might lead to complications between the Transvaal and Great Britain. On the other hand, it is understood that the Portuguese Government has assured the British Government that Portugal has no objection in any way to the proposed expedition. The Boers, however, are a crafty race, and their proximity to and meddling with the territory about which Portugal and Great Britain are disputing may yet lead to dangerous complications.

London, April 22.—The Standard says it is authorized to deny that Portugal is concluding a treaty with Boers, or convicting at the proposed founding of a republic in Mashonaland or Manicaland.

PORTUGAL EXPLAINING THE SEIZURE.

Lisbon, April 22.—The Portuguese Minister here, in an interview today with Lord Salisbury, made an explanation, which was sufficiently satisfactory to obviate any British action in the Willoughby affair. Portugal, it is stated, has instructed her agents to accord to the British free access to the Fungue River in future. The negotiations between England and Portugal have not been stopped.

TO PUNISH REBELS IN PORTUGUESE GUINEA.

Lisbon, April 22.—An expedition to punish the rebels of Portuguese Guinea will start at once from Angola. Two warships have left here to join the expedition.

FAVA AND RUDINI IN CONFERENCE.

Rome, April 22.—Baron Fava, the Italian Minister at Washington, has arrived here. Immediately after the Baron's arrival he had a prolonged conference with the Marquis di Rudini upon the various aspects of the New-Orleans affair. The outcome of this conference has not been learned.

THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IN A CHASE.

Paris, April 22.—The official correspondence with the United States Government in a chase, over which a military guard kept watch since Baron Fava landed at Havre. The Baron is accused of lapsing into translating the first Italian note communicated to Mr. Blaine. It is further considered that Baron Fava exaggerated the importance of the "guidelines" which he did not comprehend its meaning. Italy, it is maintained, was compelled to assume an air of decision in the Italian foreign policy, with the crisis threatening in the Italian foreign policy.

A DEFEAT FOR THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT.

London, April 22.—In the House of Commons today, Samuel Evans, member for Glamorgan, moved the second reading of the bill enabling the trustees of religious bodies to acquire compulsorily the places of worship upon paying compensation therefor. The motion was carried by a vote of 215 to 110. The measure being intended to place the Dissenters on an equal footing with the Church of England, the division on the motion is equivalent to a defeat of the Government. Several Conservatives voted for the bill. A number of Liberal members, in which they urged that the measure was necessary in order to secure for the Dissenters places of worship in districts held by Tory landlords.

A NEW PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND MINISTRY.

Halifax, N. S., April 22.—The local government of Prince Edward Island has resigned. The Lieutenant-Governor decided not to dissolve the Parliament, and sent for Frederick Peters, one of the Liberal members, who called the Liberal caucus for the reorganization of the Government. The following officers have been elected: Attorney-General, Mr. Peters; Commissioner of Public Works, J. R. McLean; Commissioner of Crown Lands, A. McMillan. The other members of the Government will meet to-morrow, and will probably adjourn until the portfolio elections are over.

THE GLADSTONIAN CANDIDATE DEFEATED.

London, April 22.—An election to fill the vacant seat in the House of Commons for the Middle Division of Oxfordshire took place in that division to-day. The candidates were Mr. Morrell (Liberal-Unionist) and Mr. Gladstone (Liberal). The result was a victory for Mr. Morrell, who received 4,445 votes, against 3,700 cast for his opponent. At the last election F. W. Maclean (Liberal-Unionist) was returned without opposition.

MR. MACKAY WINS A LIBEL SUIT.

Paris, April 22.—Judgment has been given in the libel case of John W. Mackay against the publisher of the "Galignani Messenger," who is fined $60, with costs, and ordered to insert the court's decision in the papers.

MR. BALFOUR'S REPLY TO MR. GLADSTONE.

WHAT THE CONSERVATIVE GOVERNMENT HAS DONE FOR IRELAND.

London, April 22.—Mr. Balfour has written a letter in which he comments at length upon Mr. Gladstone's recent criticisms on the Irish Land Bill. Mr. Balfour says:

"The Liberals oppose, line by line, a measure which is accepted in its main principles by every section of the Irish party, and eagerly desired by the bulk of the Irish agricultural community, involving no risk, theoretical or practical, to the British taxpayer. Mr. Gladstone does not even pretend to hold out any prospect of a settlement on the question, except by occupying the time of Parliament, if he gets a majority, with a fruitless discussion of absurd and impossible schemes of Home Rule. While he has been voting on abstract resolutions about self-government, rural parishes and registration, the Government has done more to advance the principle of local self-government in every part of the Kingdom, to lighten the cost of the education of the working classes, to strengthen the defenses of the Empire, and to deal with social questions, all of which Mr. Gladstone has done more to
